- VII. Announcements from the President– Obe Quarless
 - a. George Fox Incident
 - i. This past Tuesday GFU had an all school conference to represent that they wanted to be open to being more accepting as a student body
 - ii. We will have Chapel tomorrow based on racial reconciliation
 - 1. We will have an expression of solidarity through a banner that will be signed by students as a physical individual commitment to respecting others and pledge accountability.
 - 2. This is mandatory for GE 330 unless excused by Kalen
 - 3. Next week ASWU meeting will be held in the HUB Multipurpose Room
 - a. It will be an open forum for ideas on how Whitworth can address diversity issues
- VIII. Executive Vice President
 - a. Committee Updates – If you are on a board meeting you should have received information on meeting times
 - i. For those not on Board meetings we need to find times for your meetings
 - b. Elections Update
 - i. New Members are here
 - ii. We had a tie in ShMac
 - c. Homecoming
 - i. This is an all ASWU event
 - 1. We need to remove negative attitudes
 - d. October 7th GE 330 will be in the Chapel to discuss sustainability
 - e. Training session this weekend for new members
 - f. We communicate through email
 - i. You are responsible for reading and responding to emails
 - g. GE 330 on Oct.21st Dale Soden is coming to discuss growth
 - i. We need to come up with questions we can ask him
 - 1. Eric- If we have another huge growth of freshman as we did this year how will that affect on campus living?
 - 2. Seth- What is the credit freeze have to do with the science building?
 - 3. Patrick- Studentbody size vs. Academic rigor
 - 4. John – Why is tuition going up as enrollment goes up?
 - 5. Emily- Future parking?
 - 6. Aaron- Hiring new faculty to keep the student to faculty ratio down?
 - 7. Joy- What from the strategic plan are still going to be implemented on?
 - 8. Patrick- How will programs expand with an expanding student body?
 - 9. Eric – How much will the expansion of student affect SAGA?
 - 10. Dana- What are the priorities going to be on what is built as we expand?
 - 11. Jeremiah – Ultimate size of Whitworth?
- IX. Financial Vice President
 - a. Taxes have increase from 8.6% to 8.7%

 - v. We would love to have help and new members
 - vi. Joy- Have you been given permission from Sodexo?
 - 1. No
 - vii. Sarah- Food handler's license?
 - 1. No
 - viii. Discussion:
 - 1. Eric- I know that Sodexo will be an issue, but if they agree to figure that out then we can charter the club.
 - 2. Emily D.- I feel that a club should be looking to have more club activities, not just looking for money from ASWU.
 - 3. Emily M.- Are we liable for the clubs actions?
 - 4. Sarah- They didn't have any plans on fundraising.
 - 5. Katie- We don't let clubs say we just want money in Budget Committee. They should certainly be required to have food handlers' cards.
 - 6. Kendra – They have roughly 20 interested members.
 - 7. John- If we don't give them money then I don't see a purpose for the club.
 - 8. Kendra- Money would be used for student benefit.
 - 9. Eric- They can use their own money to offset costs that aren't covered by ASWU.
 - 10. Kendra- Since they haven't been chartered they have technically be running against the rules. If we don't pass this club then they have to stop doing this.
 - 11. Tyson- I don't see how we can say no to a group of people doing nice things for the campus.
 - ix. Move to vote :Aaron Quigley
 - 1. Club Passes
