ASWU News: Did you know?

This week at the ASWU meeting had two guest speakers.

Brian Benzel – VP for Finance and Administration

He spoke about the new recreation center and looking for a franchise to operate the Whitworth bookstore.

New Recreation Center
Construction started Friday September 21, 2012

-It will be opened by the 2013-2014 school year, if it is done before that it will be opened earlier

-The building is 32,000 square feet and will include a climbing wall, basketball courts, weight room, new equipment, and indoor track. -The minor would consist of two core course; environmental science which would be more science focused and environment and society, which would be more society focused.

Bookstore Franchise

-Running at financial deficit due to competition with online book companies such as Amazon, Chegg, etc.

-Still working hard to keep prices reasonable

-Now requesting third party vendors to operate the bookstore

- Looking for a vendor such as such as Barnes and Noble to operate bookstore.

Grant Casady – Assistant Biology Professor

He spoke about an environmental science minor -11 departments involved

- 15 elective credits

- 21 credits total for the minor
