Campus Vibes

Katie Rose: I was TA for lab and all students were returning and prof asked how living on campus was and they all thought it was horrible and 19 meals a week sucks and not as many options for those with meal restrictions. I want to know what sodexo told you about food plan and if there's a way to improve.

Faizzan: because of quarantine we did not meet them

Parker: we met over zoom and they did some changes about 2 months again

Jason: they are looking at ways to give people options and working towards that. Have started limited but now starting to expand

Jed: I looked at sodexo menu and starting Saturday they will start serving real stuff

Olivia: with quarantine food they are eating stuff like tacos which feels worse so maybe offering soup to those not feeling well.

Parker: in my office hours I will set up a meeting

Parker: be aware in next few weeks there will be midterms so watch out for students it may be difficult
