 - c. Nick: How does Christmas break work?
 - d. Tim: Our meeting for Jan Term is on the 9th.
 - e. Tim: Finals end the 14th, so you will put in a pay check for those first two weeks. You will get paid for three weeks in Jan Term.
 - f. Seth: How does pay work when we have a formal day off?
 - g. Dayna: Just make sure that your total hours are still the same.
 - h. Tim: For newsletters this week, just throw something funny and quick together. There will be a few events to throw on there, but really nothing much is expected of you, don't take hours and hours.
 - i. Tim: The Christmas party is tomorrow! Wear some sweet sweaters or seasonal clothes! Be up here by 5:00 because Sodexo is catering food. You will receive a number when you come in. I will give you more instructions tomorrow. Bring a gift of $5-$10 and we will have fun! It will still be 5:00-6:30. I think that's all. Charles Camry, sweet.
9. President
 - a. Molly: Vonda is retiring so we are giving her a bouquet of flowers from ASWU!
 - b. Dayna: This will mean a ton to her!
 - c. Molly: Don't forget that if you signed up for communion it is this Thursday. Try to be there by 10:50. PCUSA taskforce is holding a meeting for all of campus tonight to hear the student's voices and get feedback. We will give a presentation with all the information they need. It is at 6:00 tonight in the ABC conference rooms. For UNITE, we had a great turn out for the Dream Workshop this past weekend. One of the ideas that came out of it was to make a video. This video will actually be multiple videos to educate people on what this issue is. It will help to educate people about everyday actions they can take. Our final goal will be sending in our main video to Ellen DeGeneres! We're already not on the show, so why not! We're going to call it the Ellen challenge by challenging her to help bring this into the public sphere. We see her as someone who could be a leader in this and has resources in this that we don't have. We have wondered how we will get her attention. The idea is that we will send in hundreds of videos from SPU, Gonzaga, and Whitworth. We're actually sending in the props that we are using in our video just to get her attention. Eventually we think someone will say that we should take a look at this. You can sign up to be in the video during 15 minute increments. We will also have some people go around Spokane with us to make another part of the video.

- d. Ian: When are you making the video?
 - e. Molly: We started planning this past Saturday and will have the big part this Saturday. We would like to finish it before break so that Darian can edit it over break. Also if you know anyone who would like to be involved, send them to me! We also want to present our vision for Springfest to you guys in January.
